THE CAMOMILES

"Move over! A little pace!"

"Why are you making that face!"

"Don't block my view of the trees!"

"What are you going for?! Freeze!"

"Where are you thringing?! Stop shout!"

- hundred camomiles fell out.

Finally they get offended.

The view was just unsplendid

because after noisy pother

they turned away from each other and that is why each stuck out in its direction. No doubt!

This way, the row - very ugly! - made two flower crowns quite ... straggly.
