THE PAIR

Today morning, all day short,
mismatched couple rules the world.

I have to say, there is sun
on the gold throne. The hot one!
There is also second host upon diamond throne. The frost!

I asked the pair with a fokus:
"Are you doing hokus-pokus?
Tell the secret – little bit -
how to join the ice with heat? "

Than I got this answer: „It’s any witchcraft, any tricks
This is something normal, sir.
Our different characters
so ... complement one another.
We don't get in the way, rather although sometimes and somewhere
we do create something, sir.
Well-coordinated pair!
Two artistic souls! We swear!
Look at diamond, bright and fickle
our work made in ... icicles. "
