MANNERS

The four flowers, sad to say,
had bad manners. Every day!
Each of them - like angry man -
screamed at the watering can:
"You are garden staff and thus
you should work only for us!
Mostly in the summer heat!
If not, you can simply quit!!!"

Shortly they heard in reply:
„So .. farewell. Good luck. Bye, Bye."

The four wilted in the sun.
'Cause of manners! Everyone!
